ROYAL PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

Sharing the gift of music with future generations is one of the most meaningful legacies you can leave

Remember the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in your will

Empower us to continue sharing the thrill of live orchestral music with the widest possible audience, long into the future.

Every gift in every will, however large or small, makes a real difference and gifts can be designated according to your wishes; for example, your gift can help support our artistic programming, community and education projects, or the RPO Endowment Fund.

If you have already arranged to leave a gift to the RPO, or are planning to do so, please let us know as we would like to thank you for your gift during your lifetime. To show our appreciation, we will enrol you in our RPO 1946 Club, a group of benefactors committed to ensuring that future generations can enjoy the RPO as you do today.

Setting up a legacy gift for the RPO is very simple and we're available to help. If you would like to know more about legacy giving, or the opportunities we offer our RPO 1946 Club members, we would love to hear from you. Please complete this form, or contact David (details below), who will be pleased to hear from you.

All information will be treated in confidence.
